Dear [Name],

I hope this letter finds you well.

First, let me introduce myself. I am [Your Name], and I have been a regular customer at [Store Name] for several years. I am writing to express my dissatisfaction with the recent experience I had while shopping there.

I purchased some [Product Name] on [Date] and unfortunately, I found that the quality of the product was not up to the standards I have come to expect from your store. The product did not perform as advertised, and I was left with a feeling of disappointment.

I have always appreciated your store's commitment to customer service, and I expect nothing less. However, I believe it is important to address these concerns directly to ensure that they are resolved.

I would appreciate it if you could investigate the issue and provide me with a solution. I am looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
Understanding this may not be easy. The key is not to get too far ahead or too far behind. The most important thing is to stick to the main points of the argument. In this case, the main points are:

1. The central claim of the argument is...
2. The supporting evidence for this claim...
3. The possible counterarguments...

And so on. As you read, try to summarize each section in your own words. This will help you remember the main points and understand the argument more clearly.
Dear sir,

I am extremely sorry for the inconvenience caused. I assure you that it will not happen again. I value our relationship and appreciate your patience. I look forward to the opportunity to continue serving you.

Sincerely,
